Monthly Indicators

January 2017

January brings out a rejuvenated crop of buyers with a renewed enthusiasm in a new calendar year. Sales totals may still inevitably start slow in the first half of the year due to ongoing inventory concerns. Continued declines in the number of homes available for sale may push out potential buyers who simply cannot compete for homes selling at higher price points in a low number of days, especially if mortgage rates continue to increase.

Closed Sales decreased 0.7 percent for Detached homes and 3.7 percent for Attached homes. Pending Sales increased 14.2 percent for Detached homes and 3.6 percent for Attached homes. Inventory decreased 24.3 percent for Detached homes and 33.2 percent for Attached homes.

The Median Sales Price was up 5.6 percent to $559,500 for Detached homes and 7.8 percent to $378,750 for Attached homes. Days on Market decreased 2.3 percent for Detached homes and 22.0 percent for Attached homes. Supply decreased 26.1 percent for Detached homes and 35.3 percent for Attached homes.

In case you missed it, we have a new U.S. president. In his first hour in office, the .25 percentage point rate cut for loans backed by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) was removed, setting the table for what should be an interesting presidential term for real estate policy. FHA loans tend to be a favorable option for those with limited financial resources. On a brighter note, wages are on the uptick for many Americans, while unemployment rates have remained stable and relatively unchanged for several months. The system is ripe for more home purchasing if there are more homes available to sell.
